Meeting ID: 836 4160 9457

John will speak about the history and role of Toastmasters, and the training required for him to become a Fellow of the Guild of Professional Toastmasters. He will describe the different types of functions covered including weddings of most cultures, charity and fundraising events, civic and corporate functions, peppering his talk with 'tips of the trade' and amusing anecdotes.

Over the years John derived great satisfaction in organising and delivering many social, community and fund-raising events, ensuring that each occasion was memorable for all the right reasons.

NEXT MEETING : 3.30pm Tuesday 14th March - with Guest speaker Pam Fox
'The history of Jewish Hotels in Bournemouth'
