Meeting ID: 843 8548 1828

Born and brought up in Manchester, David is a qualified English teacher and taught in three state secondary schools before being appointed Deputy Head of JFS in 1986 where he remained until his retirement in 2015. David has also taught in a number of synagogue Hebrew classes and was Headteacher of Belmont Synagogue Hebrew Classes for three years.

David is an active member of Kenton Synagogue and since his retirement has been a volunteer at the Jewish Museum and at the local U3A (University of the Third Age) where he teaches a course entitled “The Greatest Hits of English Literature”.

In this talk, David will take us on an illustrated journey through the history of the UK’s senior Jewish secondary school, from its beginnings in 1795 and travelling to its state-of-the-art site in Kenton via the East End and Camden Town.

NEXT MEETING : 3.30pm Tuesday 14th June

‘The Curious Case of the Orphans of Ukraine’ with guest speaker Robert Waterman
