Meeting ID: 816 7187 6814

A journey through the history of the family doctor and also personal experiences.

It is very informative but with many amusing anecdotes.

Brian Posner was educated at Durham University Medical School. He was a GP for 40 years and a Medical Administrator for a further ten years. For much of this time he was Clinical Tutor to Newcastle University and Medical Advisor to Sunderland University.

In retirement he lectures on medical subjects and the history of Roman Britain. He chairs Forum, at a local speaking group. Brian was the English Heritage Guide on Hadrian’s Wall for 15 years and led a walking group for more than 20 years.

Tuesday 11 June : No meeting Shavuot

NEXT MEETING : 3.30pm Tuesday 9th July

“Jews on the Titanic” with guest speaker Michael Shaw
